ST. JOHN INDIGNANT.

The Story that He Sold Out During the Campaign Branded as a Republican Lie.

"The Political Party that Stands in the Way of the Movement of the People will Get Hurt."

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., Dec. 12.—Rev. John C. Hanna of this city has received a letter from ex-Gov. St. John in which he says:

"The story of the Republican papers that I at any time in my life, either directly or indirectly, proposed to sell out to the Republican, Democratic or any other party or organization is simply one of the many infamous and malicious lies for which the Republican press during the campaign just closed has been noted. If I had desired to have sold my principles for money or office, I could have done so years ago and would not have waited to negotiate with a party that is morally and financially bankrupt. In the late campaign the national Prohibition party defrayed my expenses and I gave to the cause my time and labor without money and without price. I am to day and have always been comparatively a poor man, too poor to be bought. The Republican party may burn me to effigy, and continue its threats of personal violence. It may open its flood-gates of falsehood and vilification and bitterness against me, but it can never swerve me one jot from doing what my conscience tells me is right.

"The campaign of 1888 has already begun, and the warfare against the liquor traffic will be vigorously prosecuted, and the political party that stands in the way of the movement of the people will get hurt. The spirit of intolerance exhibited by the Republican press to-day is doing for that party just what the same spirit did for the pro-slavery party thirty years ago. Hanging men in effigy, indulging in falsehood and vilification, is not argument, nor will it in this age of free schools, Christian homes and free men scare anybody or cause anyone to abandon their principles at the dictation of any political party."

PARIS.

Perfecting the City Fire Department.

PARIS, TEX., Dec. 12.—At the last meeting of the city council the contract to build four steamers, to be dug at once, was let and a committee appointed to consider the propriety of organizing a paid fire department. The city is in possession of 1150 feet of good hose and is ready to add to the fire department anything necessary to make it complete.

AUSTIN.

Wampler on Trial on a Third Indictment.

Special to the Gazette.

AUSTIN, TEX., Dec. 12.—The comptroller thinks that there will not be enough permanent school fund receipts to enable the board of education to purchase more county bonds until March or April.

Wampler, the defendant in the Howard county land-fraud cases, is on trial on a third indictment, two having fallen through on account of errors.

A negro attempted to force himself into the first-class compartment of an international train this evening and was repulsed. He threatens a civil-rights suit.

WEATHERFORD.

Rain, Mud, Little Business, Etcetera.

Special to the Gazette.

WEATHERFORD, TEX., Dec. 12.—Jno. A. Harris, a druggist, of the firm of Kindel & Harris, left to-day for Florida in search of health. He has been down for several months and has been unable to attend to business for some time.

Mr. Frank D-Smith has been sick for several weeks, but is improving at present.

G. S. Flanery, one of our prominent grocery merchants, to-day received news of the death of his aged father, who lived in Kentucky.

We have had a great deal of rain in the last week. It rained Wednesday and Thursday and to-day the ground is frozen.

Business is quiet at present.

A Business Men's Banquet.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The dinner at the executive committee of the business men's clubs to-night was a great success. The guests assembled soon after 6 o'clock and marched into the large hall. J. P. Townsend presided. Among the guests were United States Senator B. F. Jones of the Democratic national committee, Carl Schurz, Gov. T. M. Waller of Connecticut, Gov. Abbott of New Jersey, John Ford of the Brooklyn Union, Joseph J. O'Donohue of the C. & E. exchange, D. Willis James of the committee of 70, (as was also J. J. O'Donohue,) which overturned the Tweed ring in this city, Horace White of the Evening Post, Mayor-elect Grace and Gen. J. B. Gordon of Georgia.

A Cigar-Makers' Strike.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Dec. 12.—The cigar-makers employed by J. P. Fortondo, 100 in number, who were recently notified of a reduction in their wages of $2 per 1000 cigars, after consultation with the executive committee of the Cigar-Makers' International union, resolved to strike against the reduction. They went out in a body to-night.
